

Doctor, doctor

Intro

Doctor, doctor, tell me something, I think there's something wrong with me.
My heart is full, my head is empty, it's not the way - I used to feel.

Instrumental

11

The doctor told me, not to worry, he said there's no - thing wrong with me.
Being in love is not that easy, don't try to fight it, just let it be.

Instrumental

17

I asked my mother, can you explain, (why) this doctors words are so in vain.
He gave me nothing for my disease, my heart still aches, I'm not at ease.

Instrumental 2x

25

- My mother told me - not to worry, she said there's nothing wrong with me.
...once - at your age, - I felt the same thing, I share your feelings, you're not to blame...

Instr. 2x

33

- I came across an - elder stranger, he looked at me - and passed me by,
then turned around and asked: my dear child, what is this pain - you try to hide?

Instrumental

39

I asked this wise man, can you explain, (why) so many words won't ease my pain.
- There is nothing for my disease, my heart still aches, I'm not at ease.

Instrumental 2x

47

- The strange man told me, not to worry, your pain has just - a na - tural cause,
Their words were right, but understand, your hart is not at your command!
