

Don't you think it's a shame

Intro

5 Don't you think it's a shame, your life's so in vain, don't throw it away my honey.
Go grab this helping hand please understand that you won't make it on your own!

13 Once your life was secured, never abored, didn't know what to do with your money.
But now it's over, go get sober, wake up, I am knocking on your door!

21 Don't you think it's a shame?

Don't you think it's a shame?

Don't you think it's a shame, my honey? Don't be a loner, go get sober, wake up, I am knocking on your door!

29 Instrumental

33 Don't you think it's a shame, there's nothing to gain, - go - stand up and work for your money.
Go be wise, see the sun rise once again a new day's there to be explored!

41 Don't you think it's a shame, I think it's insane, and you are to blame my honey.
I now that you can make it, please don't fake it, (the) world is knocking on your door!

49 Don't you think it's a shame?

Don't you think it's a shame?

Don't you think it's a shame, my honey? Don't be a loner, go get sober, wake up, I am knocking on your door...>>>>

?? Instrumental, overgang naar beetje zomerse blues en relaxed in G-groot

I remember the days, we just were in love, and - we did things our own way.
We lived straight on the edge and stayed up all night, till we saw the sunlight!

- But your life got broke, your dreams turned into smoke,

- You fell a sleep - but ne - ver a - woke...never awoke...no you never awoke...never awoke...

Instrumental, terug naar B-mineur
